OVERVIEW

Meredith Bieber's practice focuses on the representation of clients in the origination and modification of commercial mortgage loans, mezzanine loans and preferred equity with a specialty in construction lending. Her clients include real estate investment firms, national and regional banks and life insurance companies. Meredith assists clients in financing for many types of projects including multi-family and mixed-use projects, hospitality, office, warehouse and industrial buildings and retail developments with experience with condominiums, ground leases, TIC financings and historic tax credit transactions.

Meredith brings from her past experience as a teacher the ability to break down complex legal issues for clients and offer multiple solutions tailored to each deal. She is known by her clients and colleagues for her responsiveness and attention to her clients' needs.

Meredith also represents clients in real estate sales and acquisitions, commercial real estate leasing and receivables and inventory financing.

Meredith has lectured on commercial finance and real estate issues, including mechanics' lien law, securitized real estate financing and due diligence in real estate transactions.

During law school, she was an associate editor for the University of Pennsylvania Law Review.
